What is Complete Disablement Cover?

Complete Disablement Cover is an insurance that provides a lump sum amount if you or a key person becomes completely disabled due to illness or injury.

Why do you need Complete Disablement Cover?

Many of us invest our lifetime and a lot of money into building a successful business. Having Complete Disablement Cover means if you or a key person within your business becomes completely disabled through illness or injury your business can either continue to operate into the future or provide you with money to buy or sell out.

How does it work?

A lump sum amount is payable if you or a key person in your business becomes completely disabled due to an illness or injury. Some examples of how this money can help are:

The sum insured may be payable if you are completely and permanently disabled according to the following:

Occupational criteria

Some facts to think about

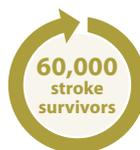

Approximately 24% of people in New Zealand have a disability.

(Statistics New Zealand, Disability Survey 2013)

During the June 2018 quarter, there were 92,642 working-age people (aged 18–64 years) in receipt of Supported Living Payment*

* a payment for people who have, or who are caring for someone with, a health condition, injury or disability that severely limits their ability to work on a long-term basis (Ministry of Social Development Supported Living Payment - September 2018 Quarter)

There are an estimated 60,000 stroke survivors in New Zealand; many are disabled and in need of significant daily support.

(stroke.org.nz, 2018)

If you're still not sure, ask yourself.

If I or a key person became completely disabled, would the business be able to continue operating?

If 'no', then now is a good time to talk to your financial adviser.
